Article Requirements

The submission file is in Open Office, Microsoft Word or RTF document file format.

Page margins – 2 cm;

Font – Times New Roman 14;

Indentation at the beginning of the paragraph – 1 cm, line-to-line spacing – 1,5 cm;

Paper scope - 7-15 pages;

Authors of the articles are responsible for correctness of presented materials, quotations, statistical data and geographical names.

Articles should be original and not submitted for publication to other journals.

The language of publications is English. Please, make sure the text is clear, concise and meets general standards of English style and usage. Non-native speakers are encouraged to seek the professional English language editorial aid.

Tables should be drawn in Times New Roman 12 (for table's title – Times New Roman 14, in bold), center alignment. Each table should have numbering Arabic numerals. Don't put the number if there's only one table in the article.

Only Roman type should be used in equations. Equations need to be center aligned; equation numbers should be right aligned. Type all equations and identify special symbols where they first appear in text or displayed equations. All the equations should be numbered sequentially throughout the entire paper and appear on a separate line in the text.

Figures have to be accomplished in black-and-white. Title should be in bold, Times New Roman 14. Each figure should be accompanied by a legend below it (Times New Roman 12).

Each equation, table, picture and figure should be accompanied by a reference. Do not number the pages. Use center alignment in the title and information on the authors, and horizontal alignment for the rest of the document
