

Shelia Slemp, USFS Eastern Europe Program Specialist

Shelia Slemp joined the USFS in 2011. She has more than 15 years of experience in community and economic development, working primarily with foundations, intermediary and other grant-making organizations to strengthen and build the capacity of civil society organizations. She provided client assistance and damage assessment following a number of disasters, including floods in North Dakota and fires in New Mexico. She holds Master's degrees in Social Science Administration and Management of Nonprofit Organizations from Case Western Reserve University and a Bachelor of Arts in Foreign Affairs from the University of Virginia.