DESCRIPTION OF THE DISCIPLINE

The discipline is aimed at mastering the basic provisions of the concept and current state of development of international human rights standards. The issue of human and civil rights and freedoms today is the most important problem of domestic and foreign policy of all states of the world community. It is the state of affairs in the field of ensuring rights and freedoms, their practical implementation is the criterion by which the level of democratic development of any state and society as a whole is assessed. The international community pays considerable attention to the development and promotion of human rights. The adoption of a number of international human rights instruments, which constitute an extensive system of relevant international standards, has greatly contributed to the democratization of the process of proclaiming and protecting human rights.
